This Week's News -

World Book Day - We are pleased to announce that the event will now take place on Thursday 15th March. Children are invited to come to school dressed as their favourite book character. The school is asking for donations of unwanted books instead of a monetary donation. This donation is still voluntary. The Stars Reading Challenge and Photo Competition have been extended and will now finish on Wednesday 14th March.

For the safety of all those using the school grounds, we would politely ask that bikes and scooters are not ridden along the paths within school.

Parents evening will take place on Tuesday and Thursday of next week. If you have yet to book an appointment, there are limited spaces available, please speak to the class teacher.

Parents should have received a letter today, outlining the school's proposed holiday club provision. If you haven't yet received your letter or have any questions, please contact the school office.

The school is currently transitioning from ParentMail to e-schools. Whilst completing this process we have noticed that some parents have not provided the school with full contact details. Please ensure that the school has your mobile phone number and email address, this will ensure that you will receive all communication from the school. Information regarding the e-school's app will follow shortly.

We are looking forward to welcoming Dr Dude and his assistants next Wednesday for our Mad Science Day. During the day the children will attend an assembly and will take part in a fun and interactive science session.

As stated in the letter sent out earlier this week, representatives from the NSPCC will be visiting the school to deliver an assembly to the children and staff.
