

Hadleigh Infants and Nursery School

Newsletter No 29 - 10th May 2024

Message from Mrs Fynn

It may have been a 4 day school week but that does not mean that we haven't been super busy here.

For me, as well as the day to day business of running the school, this week has involved meeting Mrs Hebden from the Junior school to begin planning transition for our Year 2's as they embark on the next step of their school journey. I also, along with a group of local Headteachers, met with Rebecca Harris MP to share our concerns about the current level of funding available to schools. She has promised to pass our views on to Gillian Keegan, we look forward to receiving feedback!

Out of School Achievements

Ivie from Scotland Class walked 5k at Battersea Park, London in support of the National Autistic Society.

She raised a fantastic £300 for a charity very close to the Howe family's hearts. This is an amazing achievement Ivie, well done - especially as we hear you don't like walking!
