

Hadleigh Infants and Nursery School

Newsletter No 5 - 11th October 2024

Message from Mrs Fynn :

You may remember earlier this year I mentioned that we have introduced Talk 4 Writing as a new teaching strategy here at HINS. This week the teachers met to review the progress that the children are making and it was such a positive conversation. The children are really enjoying their learning and the quality of their writing speaks for itself. Thank you Dolly for sharing your video of the retelling of your story with us - the teachers loved watching it.

Today Reception parents should have received an invitation to our Phonics Workshop. This provides an opportunity to meet with Mrs Bell, our Phonics Lead, to gain an insight in to how we teach reading across the school. Year 1 and 2 parents will also be invited in for workshops later in the year.
