

Hadleigh Infants and Nursery School Newsletter No 22 - 8th March 2024

Message from Mrs Fynn

This week has been filled with many positive moments for me, ranging from a child who often finds learning challenging beaming with pride as they showed me a piece of learning that they were proud of to a meeting with someone representing a government body telling myself and Mrs Cain that she can see how hard we are working with our financial position. One thing that did emerge from that conversation is that we were missing a Governor who specialise in financial expertise - if you are a finance professional and can spare time to join our Governing Body we'd love to hear from you, please reach out to Mrs Davis who will guide you through the next steps.

The obvious highlight of the week was World Book Day. Reading is a huge part of learning here and essential for all areas of school life. It was great hearing the children talk with passion about books and reading. Plus they looked pretty fantastic too. Thank you for your support in providing them with costumes, personal highlights included the Captain of the Titanic and Max from Where the Wild Things are.

Today is International Women's Day and I would like to thank you all for your 'likes' on our social media post. Mrs Pratt was absolutely taken aback by the love and appreciation you all showed! I would like to thank each and every one of the women here at HINS who put in so much time and care to ensuring that our children receive the best opportunities. There are a few of the 'backstage' crew that you will be less familiar with such as the kitchen staff, office team, middays and cleaning team, who are equally as important in ensuring the school functions well. I thank you all!
