

Hadleigh Infants and Nursery School

Newsletter No 33 - 14th June 2023

Message from Mrs Fynn

We have had yet another busy week here at HINS. The Year 1 children have been undertaking their statutory National Phonics Screening quiz which they tackled with their usual enthusiasm.

Today has also seen our annual poetry competition which has been such a positive experience for all of our learners, ranging from our youngest Nursery children to Year 2. It was fantastic to see the confidence of the children in the small group performances. Our winners, voted for by their peers, are:

- EYFS Overall - Moons
- EYFS Whole Class - Moons
- EYFS Small Group - Stars
- KS1 Overall - Flying Saucers
- Y1 Whole Class - Flying Saucers
- Y1 Small Group - Flying Saucers
- Y2 Whole Class - Asteroids

- Nursery - Perform
- Reception - Knowledge
- Year 1 - Knowledge
- Year 2 - Solve

Book Fair Update

Thank you to everyone who visited the book fair this week. Holding a book fair is really beneficial to schools—not only does it give us the opportunity to promote reading in our school community but it also allows the school to earn free books based on sales. Thanks to your love of books we are able to order over £800 of books for the school at no cost, which will, of course, benefit all children here.

Due to the success of the event we will be pleased to welcome Keely back next year.

Information from the Essex Child & Family Wellbeing Service:

Children often enjoy healthier food if they help to cook it. Why not sign up to the 8-week Healthy Steps emails for easy tips, budget friendly recipes, Disney game, family challenges and more!

Important Information

Parking

Please show consideration for others when you are parking to drop your children/ collect them from school.
Local residents are generally very understanding of the busyness around these times of day but are understandably frustrated when they are unable to access/ exit their homes due to driveways being blocked. If you are able to walk while the weather is good to ease the congestion please consider this option.
